MR. J. M. C. BALLENGER.

His Death Yesterday Morning After a Lingerin Illness.

At 4:15 a. m. Sunday the soul of J. M. C. Ballenger was released from its earthly tenement after a struggle covering a year, during which time hope ever cheered him on to expect an extension of years in which he might again enjoy that excellent health for which, through 53 years, had he lived till December 22d, had been his boast and pride.

James Monroe C. Ballenger was born in Maysville, passed the probating period of man's estate in the common schools and at the youthful age of 14 years entered the employ of DeHechinger; since that time he has been closely identified with the business life of our city and has been conspicuous for his ability as a clothing clerk and merchant.

His parents were pioneer citizens of Maysville, and while few of their descendants now remain, yet, in the minds of the older citizens memory freshly paints their virtues and their thrift.

Mr. Ballenger in 1877 married Sarah E. Varian; to them came five children, four girls and one boy. The mother was called to her reward three years ago, and it is beside her mortal remains these orphan children will, today at 2 o'clock, consign a devoted husband and a loving father's body after religious services at the home on Fourth street conducted by Revs. Vaught and Harrop.

A member of the Masonic and Odd-fellows fraternities, he will receive the offices for the dead according to the rites proscribed in their rituals.

DeKalb Lodge No. 12, I. O. O. F., of which he was a staunch member, will have immediate supervision of the funeral,—it having been his request.

Death is pitiless, shocking and unexpected; no friendly tears nor comforting words can stanch the flood of grief. Its weight of woe and heavy hand must lie till lifted by the hand of time which while slow in performance heals more effectually and casts away more surely the cloud of seeming impenetrable gloom which but yesterday hung round and in its place the gold shows forth with priceless value surely for God is near and heaven certain while earth holds far less charm, and so in resurrected hope from dungeon grief more dark we rise on consolation's wings to faith and sure bliss where death has stored the hearts we loved in God's own vault of bliss.

BOND'S SPECIFIC.
MAYSVILLE, KY., Dec. 14, 1899.

The Herb Medicine Co.—Dear Sirs: I have been a great sufferer for many years with that dread disease asthma. I tried everything that I could hear of, but never found anything that did me any good until I took Bond's Specific. I have taken two bottles and it did me more good than all the other treatment I ever tried. I think two more bottles will cure me sound and well. Respectfully,
Mrs. JOHN PRACK.

For sale by Henry W. Ray, J. James Wood & Son and at Chenoweth's Drug-store.

Catarth Cannot Be Cured

With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarth Cure is taken internally and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarth Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarth. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. CHENEY & CO., Props., Toledo, O.

Sold by druggists, price 75¢.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissue to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by J. C. Pecor.
